

"I am Gifted"

Video Closed-Captioning Transcript

Student 1: This is my mind. All right. This is...some other people's...and then...this...is...this is some more people. So, it's kind of how...you think. It's kind of how I think that makes me different.

Faith: You're not smarter, but you learn at a quicker pace, so it makes it easier for you to learn.

Kaina: To me, gifted means to have something special. You have something special in you that no one else has; like you're one of a kind.

Caleb: I am... I've never thought about myself like that.

Nadia: Going into a different class where you don't know what's actually waiting for you that different things could happen makes it more interesting.

Student in a light-yellow polo shirt: I like to play at gym, I like to go to art, and I like library.

Student in gray a sweatshirt: Right now, in science, I'm mostly interested in adaptation and evolution like with Charles Darwin.

Hamot: I wrote a story about a lonely adjective that never felt important, but when he met another additive that was sad, he learned that he was important too.

Nadia: I usually just like to share some jokes.

Interviewer: Would you like to share a joke with me?

(Nadia giggles.)

Caleb: I'm very very messy and unorganized but in that kinda pile of junk. That's how I stay organized.

Nadia: How about are you Wi-Fi? Cause I think we have a connection.

(People offscreen laughing at the joke.)

Jacob: I read a book about Albert Einstein and...um...it really interested me and um in science and stuff.

Student in a blue polo shirt: I wanna be a police officer, so nobody be hurt.

Beatrice: I want to write fiction picture books for children.

Faith: What I want to be is a lawyer cause I defend people and I fix people's problems in the classroom

Student in a gray sweatshirt: I'm not just some special kid that needs a special treatment. I'm every...I'm part of...I'm part of everybody.

Student in a light-yellow polo shirt: I just need to be me.

Beatrice: My name is Beatrice.

Faith: I'm Faith

Dawnasia: I'm Dawnasia.

Jacob: I am Jacob.

Nadia: I'm Nadia.

Hammot: I am Hammot.

Caleb: I'm Caleb.

Kaina: I'm Kaina...and I'm gifted.
